BREAD & BUTTER BY ZALANDO: DAY 1 SUMMARY

Berlin, 1st September 2017 // The first day at Bread & Butter 2017 by Zalando was launched with a bang at the B&B Box, the hero installation at the heart of the festival. Throughout the day, guests sat back and relaxed to view live streamed Fashion Shows projected onto the B&B Box and listened to inspiring panel talks and music performances. The interactive installation also allowed visitors to use social engagement features made available by Facebook. It set the tone for an eclectic day of highlights!

FASHION

Bread & Butter presented tons of boundary-pushing style during day one. Beyond the immersive brand labs on show, an entire exhibition was dedicated to the iconic Dame Vivienne Westwood, while Topshop's trend-filled fashion show started off a weekend of exclusive catwalk presentations.

Attendees were also treated to a stellar runway show courtesy of Zalando, where Julia Restoin Roitfeld, Veronika Heilbrunner, Sang Woo Kim, Del Keens, Lena Meyer-Landrut, Lary, Haityti, Noah Becker, Marc Goehring and Tim Labenda sat front row to view the AW17 styles as they hit the floor. This season was all about emphasising diverse characters and inspiring stylistic freedom. Model of the moment Adwoa Aboah opened the show joined by a crew of iconic faces from Berlin, who ruled the runway.

MUSIC

We've been treated to a wide spectrum of genres and pulsating beats across Bread & Butter today, with DJ sets from Berlin's coolest collectives like STAYCORE and BASS GANG.

International superstar, M.I.A. slayed the B&B stage with her headline performance that had crowds going wild. The showcase was set against Europe's most advanced technical set up with an interactive motion sensor LED screen, creating a mindblowing showcase.

TALKS

For the culturally curious, the opening day at Bread & Butter has been an utter field day. We've had deeply personal talks from icons like Wyclef Jean who wrapped up his music journey with an impromptu live performance, followed by pro-styling tips during Topshop's talk. Undoubtedly one of the main highlights was Dame Vivienne Westwood's 'Get a Life' discussion, where the legend spoke about the importance of art and literature while forging a path of inventiveness. It was a rare glimpse into the process and practice of one of the most prolific designers of our time.

FOOD

For foodies, it's been a delicious day to say the very least. We were lucky enough to see an impressive demonstration of the finest in fast food all the way from Singapore. Street food maestro Chan Hon Meng's Michelin-starred stall fed hungry Bread & Butter visitors with his authentic flavours.
